STONE &amp; THOMAS.

we have with us to-day and all this week

Aziz E. Atiyeh, a native of the far east, exhibiting magnificent and interesting specimens of Oriental art and workmanship. Persian and Turkish Rugs and Draperies, Silk Embroidered and Hand Woven Goods, Ancient War Implements, Chinese Curios, Damascus Inlaid Wood and Carved Brass Ware. An exhibition on the third floor full of interest and instruction. See a few specimens displayed in one of our windows.

dress goods.

The supremacy of our Dress Fabrics is well known—superior in quality and magnitude. A showing such as is to be seen only in the large cities. Every new weave is here and priced at figures only made possible by careful cash buying. This will be a week of special values in the plain weaves, ranging in price from 50c to $1.25. The saving is apparent when you see the goods.

dress trimmings.

Never made a more comprehensive showing than this fall. There are so many new trimmings, all pretty and effective. The prevailing gold combinations are here in abundance—white and gold, black and gold; also black velvet applied on net, all-overs. Applique band trimmings in broadcloth and taffeta. Lace braids, new spangled nets, novelties in boleros and revers; new gold cloth, etc., etc. Also a complete line of fur trimmings. The hand-painted buttons used so much on flannel waists are here in great variety; pearl buttons, gilt buttons—buttons of all kinds and sizes.

You Can Be Well Dressed For $13.90.

THIRTEEN DOLLARS AND NINETY CENTS is a modest sum of money with which to accomplish such an important result, but it can be done—right here at this store. Test this unusual example of close buying and closer selling.

Made of lustrous all wool puffed Cheviot of good quality; skirts have seven good with flared bottom; the short, double-breasted, tight-fitting satin lined jackets come with formed busts, producing an effect belonging almost exclusively to suits costing beyond $25.00. The three best colors—Blue, Brown and Black.

MORE high class suits here between $20.00 and $50.00 than you would expect to find in any Wheeling store, and there's a distinct individuality about them, strikingly suggestive of Parisian models as shown in French fashion plates.

The Elegance of Simplicity

is fittingly illustrated in a newly acquired line of Tailor-Made French Flannel Waists. Quick to catch the eye are a series of seven three-quarter inch wide strappings of same material, running down the front and back. Each of the strappings, having five neat rows of silk stitching, producing a neat welt effect. The Bishop sleeves have close fitting waist bands with considerable fullness immediately above. Medium sized, half bullet shape, white pearl buttons, finish off a waist difficult to surpass at any price. More accurate labor on these waists than any we $3.95 have ever sold at.

Each one in a separate box and only to be had here. Colors: Black, White, Rose, Red, Grey and Helle.

KNIT SKIRTS $1.48, are all-wool, warm and serviceable. FLANNELLETTES NIGHT GOWNS for women and children just in. NEW FURS, JACKETS, CAPES AND SHIRTS coming daily.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and Ab. at the City Given in a Nutshell.

Grand to-night—"Finnegans' Ball."

The board of county commissioners will meet this morning in regular monthly business session.

William Rader, of West Wheeling, died yesterday morning at 4 o'clock. The immediate cause of his death was typhoid fever. He was in his twenty-fifth year. His death will be a shock to his many friends. His father preceded him about ten months ago. The funeral will take place Wednesday.

A subscriber asks the Intelligencer to settle a dispute as to whether Coxey and the soup houses flourished under Republican or Democratic rule. The soup-house regime in Wheeling was during the latter part of 1893-94; Coxey and his army reached Washington April 23, 1894, and in the language of Captain Davenport Grover Cleveland told them to "keep off the grass."

The first meeting of the stockholders of the Bellairs, Benwood & Wheeling Bridge Company will be held at the office of William H. Hearn, in this city, on November 20, for election of directors.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Going and Coming of Wheeling People and Visitors.

Miss Nellie Humphrey, of Leatherwood, is quite ill at her home.

All Favor the Bill.

The sub-committee appointed by the "Committee of One Hundred" at the meeting held on the evening of October 31st, has the pleasure to report that all the candidates of the two great parties for the house of delegates cordially endorse the bill proposed to be presented as affecting the offering and accepting of bribes by members of municipal or county bodies and others, each pledging himself to use his best efforts to secure the passage of the bill.

NO one can reasonably hope for good health unless his bowels move every day. When this is not attended to, disorders of the stomach arise, biliousness, headache, dyspepsia and piles soon follow. If you wish to avoid these ailments keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when required. They are so easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by druggists.

ALL PARTIES
LOOK ALIKE TO-NIGHT.

The "Mother Hubbard" Parade Will Interest Thousands of Spectators.

IT WILL BE THE LARGEST

Affair of the Kind on Record—Chief Marshal Church Issues General Orders.

This is "Mother Hubbard" night, and the boys of both parties will dress themselves in their big sisters' clothes and join in one grand procession in honor of the woman's suffrage movement.

The idea was hatched in the brain of some "unknowing" twelve years ago, and since that time every presidential campaign has been closed with a "Mother Hubbard" parade. Beginning with a turn out of only fair size, each succeeding one has been larger and better than the others, and it is expected that to-night's parade will be the greatest of all.

Political marching clubs of both parties will participate, and they will come from Bellaire, Martin's Ferry, Bridgeport, Benwood and Moundsville to-night to join with the Wheelingites in the "big doin'."

The members of the various clubs will meet at their respective headquarters and under command of their officers march to the forming place at the Terminal depot, where they will be assigned to position in line. All who are not members of marching clubs will form at the Terminal.

Meister's band has been engaged to appear at the head of the column in skirts. The following general orders of Chief Marshal Frank Church will explain the details and route of the parade:

General Order No. 1.

All clubs and persons intending to participate in the "Mother Hubbard" parade to-night will report at the Terminal depot at 7:30 o'clock, where they will be met by the chief marshal and aides, who will conduct them to their position in line. As the clubs arrive they will be given their position, so that the first to come will lead the parade.

The marchers will parade in sets of four, and will please remain so throughout the procession. Officers of the various clubs will please see that the rule is enforced.

Transparencies and mottoes are of course welcome, but nothing of a political or suggestive nature will be permitted in line. All participants are requested to conduct themselves with "lady-like" demeanor and in no case say or do anything to offend the spectators along the line. The marshals are instructed to enforce this rule, and any violation will result in the arrest of the offender.

The parade will form on Chapline street, right across on Sixteenth, and move over the following route: Up Chapline to Fourteenth, down Fourteenth to Market, up Market to Ninth, down Ninth to Main, down Main to Twelfth, up Twelfth to Market, down Market to Twentieth, up Twentieth to Chapline, down Chapline to Twenty-fourth, down Twenty-fourth to Main, up Main to Twenty-first, up Twenty-first to Market, up Market to Eleventh and disband.

All carriages will take position in the rear of the line. Those intending to ride horses will please report to the chief marshal, and be assigned a place on his staff as aides.

James McCausland has been selected chief of staff, and Charles H. Geiger marshal of the First division.

The parade will move promptly at 8 o'clock, headed by Meister's "female" band.

By order of FRANK M. CHURCH, Chief Marshal.

Those having the affair in charge are anxious that the participants observe the rule to do nothing in line to offend onlookers, and the police have been requested to assist in keeping the boys straight.

The finance committee is hard at work raising funds to defray the expenses of the parade, and is meeting with fairly good success.

"JUDGE" HOLT CALLED TO TASK

His Failure to See Democratic Deficits is an Alarming Malady.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

SIR:—In yesterday's issue of the Charleston Gazette I noticed a copy of J. H. Holt's speech, in which it seems he wants to give a "slight of hand" performance with figures, and in comparing the appropriations for this institution under the last Democratic administration with the present Republican administration, he says: "Let us in the first place take the appropriations for the second hospital for the insane, which is located at Spencer, and you will find that during the years I have mentioned the Democratic appropriations have been $65,000, as against the Republican appropriation of $32,000, making a Republican increase of $33,000."

Mr. Holt fails to go a little further and tell the people that of this "Republican increase" $15,077.55 was a deficit created by and through a Democratic administration, and handed over to a Republican administration. If Mr. Holt was so inclined he could go further with his figures, and tell the taxpayer that for the first time since the organization of this hospital there is a surplus in bank to the credit of the institution at the end of the biennial period. The surplus is $10,555.60, which added to the Democratic deficiency would make $25,633.15, and spoil the appearance of Mr. Holt's $32,000 "Republican increase."

If Mr. Holt was really sincere in wishing to enlighten the people he could have gone still further, and stated that the average number of patients at the second hospital during the last fiscal year of Democratic administration was 22.9, while during this last year the average population has been 418, which would show a large saving in expenses in favor of the Republicans from a per capita standpoint. This reduction in expenses under Republican administration has in no way come off the patients, but from the curtailment of unnecessary labor and a stoppage of leakages in various departments.

For instance, during the month of December, 1896, under Democratic management, the expense for labor at the power house was $38.84, and in the same month of the next year, under Republican administration, with the same conditions, except an increased number of wards to heat and light, the expenses in this department were $162.82 (less than half). The same month of 1896 expenses for labor at the laundry were $98.50, while the same month of the next year, under Republican administration, the expenses for labor in this department were $32.60, all conditions being the same, except an increase in the insane population during the latter year, or taken by full year the labor at the power house during 1897-98 was $3,150.77, while the following year, under Republican management, the expenses for labor in this department amounted to $1,833.71. Labor on farm, 1896-97, was $885.49, while under the Republican administration it was $442.16 (little less than half), while during the latter year the farm was more productive by over $500.

Comparison in odds and ends fund, which is a fund paid into the hospital from the sale of bed clothes, old barrels, fallow, etc. Amount paid into the hospital during the last two years of Democratic administration ending June 1, 1897, was $320.27; amount paid into the hospital during the last two years of Republican administration, ending June 1, 1900, $1,651.19.

During the past two years numerous permanent improvements have been made at the above institution, such as the erection of an ice plant, purchase of electric machinery for lighting the buildings and grounds, the construction of a sewerage disposal and also the laying of about three thousand yards of paved roadway. Since June 1, 1897, three new wards have been opened and furnished for the reception of patients, and the hospital's capacity for the care and treatment of the insane thereby greatly increased. When the Republicans assumed the management of this hospital on June 1, 1897, the insane population was 245, and on June 1, 1900, the insane population was 429, and during the past year we have treated 616 insane, while the greatest number ever treated in this institution under a Democratic administration, in any one fiscal year was 312.

As to who has been most careful and watchful of the state's funds we are willing to have an unprejudiced public judge. Respectfully,

L. V. GUTHRIE,

Superintendent Second Hospital for Insane.

Spencer, W. Va., Nov. 2, 1900.

Pittsburgh Orchestra.

The opening concert of the sixth season of Pittsburgh's notable music institution were given last week with unparalleled success. Mr. Herbert's third season in Pittsburgh could not have been inaugurated more auspiciously. The orchestra of seventy-three players was applauded throughout the entire course of the programme. While it is not to be expected that the orchestra will do its best work after two weeks' rehearsal, the quality of the playing at the first concert was remarkable.

Concerts will be given weekly throughout the season until the middle of March, except one week in December, when the out-of-town engagements made demand absence from Pittsburgh. The next concert is on Friday evening, November 9, and Saturday afternoon, November 10. People living outside of Pittsburgh will find it very convenient on Saturdays when they visit the city for any purpose, to spend the afternoon in Carnegie music hall, Schenley park. The concerts last only two hours from 2:15 o'clock. There is always a good programme and as soloist, a superb artist.

For the next concert the soloist is Miss Lillian Blauvelt, an American soprano, who has been honored in all the great concert-rooms of Europe. The programme includes a symphony by Brahms, an overture by Goldmark, and selection by Puccini and Wagner. Tickets can be ordered by long distance telephone No. 1253.
